

PREPARE FOR BATTLE 5

HELP FOR THE SAINTS

Here are some resources to help you think through our Day. Most can be read online, downloaded onto your device and/or printed.

I fully anticipate that if plans for Jan. 20 continue as now assumed by many, that it won't be long before Christian-base web sites like www.john2031.com, which proclaim the exclusivity of our Lord God and His son Jesus Christ, and which affirm the moral and social values of the scriptures, will be considered hate speech and will be blocked or taken down. I encourage you to avail yourself of such resources, here and elsewhere, while there is still time.

I envision that we will be dropped by Facebook first, and then our web sites before real long.
