A WORD FROM THE LORD?

This came to me yesterday from a proven sister in the Lord who spends a lot more time on her face before Him than I do. Please read it carefully and see if God's Spirit God in you, bears witness to it being an authentic word from God, to her, for us.

“My people have been guided by other voices and can no longer hear Me. They have become deaf and blind.

The enemy of your soul wants you to become concerned about everything that is happening in the nations. He wants you to believe that things are out of control and that it's too big for Me to deal with. That in this time, there are so many details to consider that I feel overwhelmed by it all.

Do you have any idea how ridiculous this thought is? Do you understand how undersized this concept of Me is, that is being pushed forth in this narrative?

Make no mistake, the enemy of your soul is FULLY aware of WHO I AM and how I have dealt with him. But he will never relay this truth of WHO I AM, only lies about ME.

So My dear ones, you must allow Me, you must ask Me, to open your eyes to the reality of WHO I AM. Then and only then, can you rest in peace against My bosom.”

Now, one thing that we'll see happening in the days ahead is the increased activity of the Holy Spirit among us as we are needy, and open ourselves to Him. He has always been ready to speak to us, but in our religious stupor we have felt little need for what He would say.

Listen to Him like never before, and don't hesitate to have pen in hand (or keyboard nearby) as you wait quietly before Him. Remember that God will be speaking to and through you, a human, and it will likely reflect some of your communication style.

Okay?
